

SmarTone lends full support to healthcare workers Offers 200GB free local data for seamless communications

(Hong Kong, 4 March 2022) SmarTone today announces its full support to healthcare workers amidst the recent rise in pandemic cases, arranging extra local data to those remaining on duty, helping them stay in touch with loved ones even if their work take them away from home during the pandemic!

Frontline healthcare workers* currently using SmarTone or Birdie mobile monthly plans need only provide designated proof of their employee card to receive extra 200GB free local data upon validation[^]. For registration and enquiries, please contact through our WhatsApp hotline 9660 2688 for assistance.

As a leading mobile service provider in Hong Kong, SmarTone has been dedicated in its support of Hong Kong's anti-pandemic work. It recently announced the full-speed construction of 5G networks at 10 community isolation and treatment sites with an investment of HK$10 million, and SmarTone's engineering team is now working around the clock to help citizens stay in touch with their families, friends and communities, and carry out anti-pandemic work more efficiently.

Moreover, SmarTone has been helping our customers quarantine without losing touch by arranging extra 100GB of free local data, unlimited local voice minutes, 1-month free JOOX VIP music service and hmvod standard plan to to SmarTone mobile monthly plan customers undergoing quarantine at quarantine centres or targeted lockdown buildings. Selected customers[#] can also receive a 30-day free SmarTone Home 5G Broadband service plus 5G Wi-Fi 6 router* delivered straight to their doorsteps[^] to keep staying online, working, and in touch with their loved ones during quarantine. Customers can contact us through our designated WhatsApp channel for real-time enquiries, online subscription or contract renewal to enjoy SmarTone services without leaving home.
